

Sarnia-Lambton was well represented with 16 players competing the 62nd annual Francis J. Robinson Memorial Tennis Tournament in Port Huron that concluded Aug. 4. Pictured here are local finalists or champions from their age divisions. From left, back row: Ryan Davies, Aditya Damani, Elijah Brown and Divyesh Bhargava; front row: Tej Patel and Chimnay Damani. Missing were Matthew Stek, Chris Latosinsky, Mihnea Balan and Betty Latosinsky. Submitted Photo

SARNIA THE OBSERVER

Published on: August 5, 2019 | Last Updated: August 6, 2019 3:01 AM EDT

Six Sarnia-Lambton tennis players won titles at the 62nd annual Francis J. Robinson Memorial Tournament on the weekend in Port Huron.

Tennis players win titles

Six Sarnia-Lambton tennis players won titles at the 62nd annual Francis J. Robinson Memorial Tournament on the weekend in Port Huron.

Elijah Brown was a three-time champion in boys' 15s singles and doubles and 15s mixed doubles. Divyesh Bhargava was his boys' doubles partner and the singles runner-up.

Chimnay Damani won boys' 12s singles and doubles and was a finalist in 12s mixed doubles. Tej Patel was his boys' doubles partner and the singles runner-up.

Ryan Davies and Aditya Damani won boys' 18s doubles. Davies was a finalist in 18s mixed doubles and Aditya Damani was the 18s singles runner-up.

Other finalists were: Matthew Stek, 10s coed doubles (orange ball); Chris Latosinsky and Mihnea Balan, boys' 18s doubles; and Betty Latosinsky, women's 45s doubles.